

Red Wing Arts Policies

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

Red Wing Arts believes that diversity, inclusion, and equity are essential to fulfilling our mission. We embrace differences and commonalities across race, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, mental and physical ability, religion, and age. We commit to expanding our awareness about, and representation in, the greater diverse arts experience and strive to make art an intrinsic part of everyday life.

PARTICIPATION POLICY

Red Wing Arts reserves the right to deny any person's participation or continued participation in our arts education program if, in our sole discretion, the participant's behavior is highly disruptive to the program or the participant may cause harm to himself/herself or to others in the program.

SPECIAL NEEDS

If you have special needs that may impact your participation, please let us know. Staff will contact you before the class to discuss accommodations. We may not be able to ensure reasonable accommodations with less than two weeks' notice.

YOUTH PARTICIPATION

Youth Participation form completion is required at the beginning of each calendar year for all participants under 18. All forms are required by the start of a student's class, or the student will not be able to participate. Forms will be sent in the confirmation email after registration and can be returned via email. Alternatively, participants can arrive at least ten minutes prior to class to complete forms.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships are available! For information regarding scholarships, please email cherish@redwingarts.org.

CANCELLATION

Cancellations made 14 days before date of workshop are eligible for a full refund. Cancellations made 7 days or less before the date of workshop are not eligible for refunds.

All cancellation requests must be sent to cherish@redwingarts.org

If there is insufficient enrollment, we will cancel class, notify registered students, and provide a refund or credit for all payments. Decisions are made approximately one week before classes begin. Please register early or you might find that your favorite class is full, or canceled because of low enrollment.
